MSES “Tape Art” mural

Tape Art is a growing medium in the world of art — and two remarkably talented Manitou Springs Elementary School fifth grade artists, Evan F. and Donovan W., are creating a new tape mural on the stairway wall leading down to the MSES Collaboratory. Their mural, named “A Work in Progress,” is figuratively and literally an appropriate title for their original design — and as a good description of the whole elementary school experience, where all of us are a “work in progress!” Keep your eye on these artists! This mural project will continue to change and develop in the coming weeks.
